

The top 8 reasons to be a baby Kangaroo

8. You are called a Joey.
7. You live in a waterproof pouch.
6. You can see everything without going through the opsticles.
5. After six months in your mother's pouch, you can go outside for a while, then when danger decides to come and get you "plop" you jump back in again.
4. When you're born you're a little less than an inch long.
3. You can have a snack on the go.
2. Your mom is like an alarm, when you're outside and she sees danger "Thump" she stomps her foot. And the number one reason to be a baby kangaroo is... You dive into her pouch head first like a swimming pool.